CHICAGO – Molly S. DiRago, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Business Litigation Practice Group, has been selected to serve on Law360's Illinois Editorial Advisory Board. The advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how to best shape future coverage.

DiRago litigates complex commercial matters, focusing on biometrics and privacy, class actions, and consumer fraud. In addition to litigation, she counsels clients on privacy policies, including on the collection of biometric data (fingerprints, retina scans, etc.), and has written articles and spoken on privacy and technology issues, including Illinois' Biometric Information Privacy Act. She is editor of the firm's More Privacy, Please, a monthly newsletter recapping industry and legal developments in the areas of cybersecurity, information governance, and privacy.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to serve on Law360's Illinois Editorial Advisory Board," DiRago said. "Troutman Pepper has a strong footprint in Chicago, and I look forward to helping fellow Illinois attorneys stay informed about important legal issues."

Outside of her practice, DiRago enjoys contributing to the legal community through pro bono and public service efforts. She is a passionate advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion in both legal and business communities and focuses her community service on organizations working toward those goals. DiRago is a board member of the Chicago chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW), a junior board member of the Women in Law Empowerment Forum (WILEF), and a delegate for the Coalition of Women's Initiatives in Law.

Troutman Pepper's Business Litigation Practice Group is nationally recognized for its work defending and prosecuting high-stakes commercial matters in federal, state, trial, and appellate courts throughout the country. Attorneys are experienced in litigating complex multidistrict cases, class actions, and single-case litigations and represent a diverse array of clients from mid-market companies to Fortune 500 leaders.
