WASHINGTON – Nicole Edmonds, a partner at Troutman Pepper and a recognized authority on federal securities laws and corporate governance, has been selected to serve on Law360's Capital Markets Editorial Advisory Board, which provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

With both in-house and regulatory experience, Edmonds represents U.S. and foreign companies in connection with U.S. capital markets transactions, periodic reporting with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, national securities exchange listings and compliance, corporate governance, shareholder meetings, executive compensation disclosures, and beneficial ownership reporting.

"I am thrilled to join Law360's Capital Markets Editorial Advisory Board and look forward to sharing insights about how this field of law continues to evolve," Edmonds said. "As we continue to navigate through a time of shifting legal priorities, it is critical to have outlets such as Law360 to report on these issues and provide clear and actionable information and guidance."

Drawing on her executive level in-house and regulatory experience, Edmonds consistently delivers sound, risk-based practical solutions to our clients' most pressing problems. Edmonds is experienced in corporate governance and federal securities laws, including the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and securities exchange listing standards.

Consistently recognized as a top-tier national practice, Troutman Pepper's corporate attorneys regularly handle multimillion- and multibillion-dollar transactions. Core areas of service include capital markets transactions and other significant domestic and cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities laws compliance, and corporate finance.
