CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Victoria Alvarez, an experienced trial attorney in Troutman Pepper's Business Litigation Practice Group, has received a 2022 On the Rise – Top 40 Young Lawyers Award from the American Bar Association. The awards program recognizes young lawyers who exemplify a broad range of high achievement, innovation, vision, leadership, and legal and community service.

Honorees, who must be ABA members in good standing, were selected after a thorough nomination process that included review from a selection committee comprising attorneys across diverse practice areas.

At Troutman Pepper, Alvarez represents real estate developers, manufacturers, public utilities, and companies of all sizes in complex commercial disputes. Appearing before state and federal courts, municipalities, and public commissions, her practice is not only domestic, but also extends to international arbitral bodies.

Within the ABA, Alvarez serves as a commissioner for the Commission on Women in the Profession and is a leader in the Tort, Trial & Insurance Practice Section. She also mentors law students and associates, serves as vice-chair for the firm's Latino Caucus, and has been named to the NC Pro Bono Honor Society.
