

Troutman Strategies Principal Robert Miller Named to USLege's Lobby Legends of the Year 2025 List

AUSTIN – Robert Miller, principal at Troutman Strategies, has been named to USLege's Lobby Legends of the Year list for 2025. The list recognizes individuals who have demonstrated consistent influence and credibility across multiple legislative sessions, possess deep institutional knowledge, and maintain trusted relationships across the political spectrum. Additionally, honorees are acknowledged for their role in mentoring and elevating the next generation of Texas lobbyists.

The Lobby Legends list celebrates professionals whose contributions have significantly shaped Texas government affairs over the years. These individuals are trusted veterans, mentors, and leaders, known for their results-driven approach, strong relationships, and respected reputations. Their work in advising clients, guiding coalitions, and setting the tone for future leaders underscores their excellence and enduring presence in the Capitol.

As one of this year's Lobby Legends, Miller represents the leadership, credibility, and long-term vision that define the very best of Texas government affairs. With nearly four decades of experience in government relations law, he has been instrumental in lobbying efforts across local, state, and federal levels for both public and private clients. Miller's diverse clientele ranges from Fortune 500 companies to family-owned businesses, and his influence has been pivotal in shaping significant state and local initiatives. Beyond his professional achievements, Miller's dedication to public service is evident through his leadership roles in civic organizations, notably as the former chairman of the Metropolitan Transit Authority of Harris County, TX, highlighting his unwavering commitment to advocacy and community engagement.
