Thursday, November 19 • 1:50 – 2:50 p.m. CT

Morgan Klinzing, an associate in Troutman Pepper's Tax Practice Group, will be speaking at the Tulane University Law School's 69th Tulane Tax Institute taking place virtually from November 18 – 20, 2020. Her presentation on November 19 is titled, "Carried Away with Carried Interest Planning."

Since the first Institute in 1951, the Tulane Tax Institute has presented a forum for attorneys, CPAs and estate planners to hear nationally recognized tax and estate planning legal practitioners, law professors and accountants present in-depth reviews of recent tax statutes, regulations and decisions, learn practical tax and estate planning tips and discuss the current issues impacting their practice.
