ORANGE COUNTY, Calif. – Troutman Pepper Partners Sadia Mirza and Ron Raether have been recognized by Law.com's California Legal Awards program. Mirza was named among the winners for the Lawyers on the Fast Track Award, and Raether is a finalist for the Mentorship Award.

The annual awards program honors the California law firms and legal departments driving the state's dynamic legal landscape. All winners will be named and recognized at an October 15 awards event in Los Angeles.

Winner

Sadia Mirza – Lawyers on the Fast Track Award

Mirza was recognized among the next generation of legal leaders receiving a 2024 Lawyers on the Fast Track Award. Mirza leads Troutman Pepper's Incidents + Investigations team, advising clients on all aspects of data security and privacy issues. She is the first point of contact when a security incident or data breach is suspected and plays a central role in her clients' cybersecurity strategies.

Finalist

Ron Raether – Mentorship Award

Raether, who leads the firm's Privacy + Cyber team, is among a handful of finalists for the Mentorship Award, which recognizes attorneys whose guidance and support are sculpting the next generation. Raether provides holistic advice to clients at the intersection of the law and technology. Balancing privacy, cyber security, and business functionality, his approach adapts to the ever-evolving landscape while helping clients achieve their goals.

Troutman Pepper's Privacy + Cyber practice has pioneered emerging issues relating to implementation and compliance, litigation, regulatory investigations, and incident response. The team has led some of the most high-profile litigation matters and regulatory enforcement actions and is uniquely positioned to address emerging privacy and cyber issues that the world — and the law — have never had to confront before.
