RICHMOND/VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. – Troutman Pepper is among nine law firms recognized by Virginia Lawyers Weekly's 2024 Law Firms on the Move program. The firm, which also received the award last year, was recognized for its embrace of innovation in firm management and legal practice, growth strategies, new practice areas, community outreach, and diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives.

Troutman Pepper has a robust Virginia presence, with more than 150 attorneys practicing from the firm's Richmond and Virginia Beach offices. The full-service Commonwealth offices cater to clients in virtually every sector with local, national, and even international reach. Attorneys are well-connected to local businesses, governmental circles, economic development, culture, arts, and charitable organizations.

Since January 2024, Virginia Lawyers Weekly has recognized four Troutman Pepper attorneys – Dabney Carr, David E. Constine III, Judith “Judy” Jagdmann, and Christopher Stock – for their career achievements, practice strengths, leadership, and community engagement, among other attributes.

Troutman Pepper's Law Firm on the Move nomination notably highlighted the firm's focus on innovation. The firm was among the first to launch a generative AI assistant, Athena, which helps attorneys and business professionals within the firm safely and effectively use GenAI to improve workflows and enhance overall user and client experiences. The firm's commitment to continuous innovation has been recognized nationally. Most recently, the Financial Times recognized it among the top 25 most innovative law firms and The Legal Intelligencer named it among the 2024 Law Firm Innovators.

The firm also has been celebrated for its creative approaches to client service. Its bespoke client value program, Troutman Pepper Plus, combines the services of attorneys and skilled professionals across the firm to provide clients with tailored solutions in areas like innovation, diversity, pricing, legal project management, pro bono, and more.
