RICHMOND, Va. – Karen Longworth, a legal practice assistant at Troutman Pepper in Richmond, Virginia, has been recognized among the 2022 “Unsung Legal Heroes” by Virginia Lawyers Weekly. The awards honor law firm employees – including accounting and finance professionals, law firm administrators and office managers, paralegals and legal assistants, legal secretaries, librarians, docket administrators, and receptionists – who have consistently gone above and beyond the call of duty, often behind the scenes.

Longworth has been with Troutman Pepper most of her career – over 30 years. As a legal practice assistant, she supports multiple practices and attorneys across the national law firm, performing highly specialized administrative work while delivering a superior level of service.

Longworth and other 2022 “Unsung Legal Heroes” will be recognized in a special section of Virginia Lawyers Weekly later this month.
