The U.S. Trustee Program (UST) is a division of the U.S. Department of Justice that serves as a "watchdog" over the federal bankruptcy process for the benefit of all stakeholders. The UST is a unique party in a Chapter 11 case, not motivated by financing incentives, but meant to ensure a fair and transparent bankruptcy process.

This article discusses the key functions of the Office of the U.S. Trustee in a Chapter 11 Case. To access this article and read other insights from our Creditor's Rights Toolkit, please click here.
