Giovanni Visintini will be a featured speaker during the “Tackling Trademark and Branding Challenges in Global Markets” panel at the 2025 Winter Intellectual Property Conference, from 10:50-11:35 a.m. GMT.

This session will explore practical strategies for managing trademark portfolios and securing brand identity, including counterfeiting, copycats, lookalikes, brand dilution, dupe culture, and post-sale confusion and how to foster collaboration. Join us for an exciting two-day conference that guarantees a meticulously curated program of educational sessions, presentations for industry leaders, and networking opportunities with professionals from across the IP industry.
