

Trouman Sanders is defined by its vigorous approach to its clients' business and legal challenges and its focus on developing creative, successful solutions. Responding quickly to emerging legal trends and shifting regulations, Troutman Sanders has earned the trust of its clients and the respect of its peers.

A PROGRESSIVE STRATEGY Troutman Sanders LLP, founded in 1897, is an international law firm with more than 600 attorneys in offices in New York, Hong Kong, London, Atlanta, Norfolk, Raleigh, Richmond, Tysons Corner, Virginia Beach and Washington, D.C. The firm is organized into over 30 practice groups in the areas of corporate, finance, litigation, public law and real estate. There are no boundaries between practice groups — each strategically taps the resources of the others to best serve its clients. This enables the firm to offer its clients the flexibility and responsiveness required in a competitive, ever-changing business environment. A responsive organizational structure, a proactive legal style — these are the hallmarks of Troutman Sanders' distinctive progressive approach.

litigation. With nearly 120 attorneys, the office serves its growing client base with a broad range of customized legal solutions in all aspects of commercial law. The firm is an integral part of the business community; as the business environment has evolved, so has the scope of services the firm provides. In recognition of the firm's excellence, seven of its New York attorneys have been honored as Super Lawyers: Elliot Cohen, Hollace T. Cohen, Stephen E. Estroff, Leonard Grunstein, Lawrence M. Levinson, Mitchel H. Perkiel and Lawrence D. Swift.

A BROAD REACH Troutman Sanders serves a diverse group of clients — from Fortune 500 companies to small businesses, multinational corporations to government agencies, nonprofit organizations to individual entrepreneurs, sports and entertainment organizations to foreign governments. With their vast experience in commercial law and public policy in the U.S. and abroad, Troutman Sanders lawyers have the expertise to bring virtually any matter to a successful resolution.

GIVING BACK Troutman Sanders is also known for its commitment to the communities in which the attorneys and staff live and work. Members of the firm are active in civic, charitable, religious, educational, professional, international, governmental and arts-related organizations. Troutman Sanders believes this contribution makes a difference at home and around the world.
