OVERVIEW

Ahmed is an accomplished attorney with years of diverse experience who counsels a wide variety of clients, including preeminent financial institutions, in complex commercial litigation. He is a seasoned litigator who is particularly experienced in securities litigation and FINRA arbitrations, and offers clients a successful track record arguing dispositive motions in federal and state court. Ahmed handles a range of key activities throughout his clients' cases, and independently and efficiently manages a portfolio of cases from inception to resolution.

Ahmed draws from his prior experiences as a law clerk at various government offices and as a certified mediator to help clients navigate the complexities of litigation.
