Allison strategically handles high-stakes investigations and litigation, including multifaceted government inquiries, sexual misconduct probes, and major False Claims Act cases, and she has a deep understanding of the financial impacts of such challenges.

OVERVIEW

Allison leads the firm's White Collar Litigation + Investigations Practice Group. She represents companies and individuals facing complex white collar investigations, including False Claims Act and FCPA investigations, as well as internal investigations related to employment and compliance issues. Allison also handles employment matters, business torts, contract disputes, and fiduciary duty claims in closely held companies and partnerships.

Allison has extensive experience navigating governmental inquiries and enforcement actions. She represents clients in state and federal investigations, often resulting in no action taken against them. Allison's background as a former assistant district attorney equips her with a unique perspective on prosecution and defense strategies, making her an asset in high-stakes situations.

Allison brings a proactive approach to mitigating the financial and reputational impacts of investigations. She is committed to providing thorough and strategic counsel, working to ensure that clients are well-prepared to handle any legal challenges they face.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Criminal and Government Enforcement Actions

- Represented an employer facing a multifaceted governmental inquiry regarding its employment and hiring practices, with a focus on wage and hour violations and identity theft.

Sexual Misconduct Investigations

- Led an independent investigation into sexual misconduct at The Hotchkiss School, an elite Connecticut boarding school.
- Advised various schools, boards, and businesses as they navigated sexual misconduct and race-based discrimination allegations, including historical claims.

False Claims Act

- Represented a large health care company in a state attorney general investigation into a whistleblower's False Claims Act allegations with no action taken by the state.
- Represented witnesses in a federal False Claims Act investigation with no action taken against the witnesses.

Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

- Conducted an internal investigation on behalf of a private equity firm into the billing and FCPA compliance practices of one of its portfolio companies, a global supplier of specialty adhesives.

SEC Enforcement

- Represented the controller at a Boston-based father-son hedge fund under an SEC Enforcement investigation for its pre-inception performance records. Investigation of the long-serving controller was terminated with no charges brought against her.

Employment

- Represented a Nantucket-based restaurant, handling offering materials, employment agreements, and a related criminal matter once the restaurant was open.
- Advised an entrepreneur/venture capitalist negotiating the departure from his own firm, where restricted stock units, noncompetition, and nonsolicitation considerations were at issue.
- Represented an individual in a complex business dispute with a former venture capital firm specializing in early and late-stage life sciences investing. The case involved issues of fiduciary duty, fraud, accounting, and breaches of contract. Obtained full dismissal of all claims against the individual and an award in favor of the client valued at more than $15 million.

Other Representative DOJ Matters

- Represented an individual concerning the "Operation Varsity Blues" college admissions fraud investigation and case.
