OVERVIEW

Ana is a commercial real estate paralegal with experience supporting real estate and litigation matters. Her background includes case management, title review, and document preparation in both law firm and in-house legal settings. Ana has also worked as a paralegal studies tutor, supporting students and newer professionals. Her experience with day-to-day case work and coordinating tasks has helped her collaborate with attorneys, clients, and staff on time-sensitive matters.

Before joining the firm, Ana worked in roles focused on commercial real estate and civil litigation, including a position at a boutique real estate firm. She has supported attorneys with title issue analysis, trial preparation, and multijurisdictional filings, and has handled high-volume document production with attention to accuracy and deadlines.
