OVERVIEW

Andrew is a litigator who handles complex business disputes in Florida state and federal courts. He represents a diverse range of clients, from individuals to large national companies, across various industries.

Andrew's practice spans all stages of the litigation process. He has experience in pre-litigation matters, including revising limited liability company operating agreements and handling records requests. Andrew has drafted a wide variety of pleadings, motions, and discovery requests and responses, including dispositive and non-dispositive motions. He has also handled hearings and a mediation on his client's behalf and assisted senior attorneys in preparing for hearings and trials.

Andrew has handled a variety of post-trial matters, including a response to a renewed judgment as a matter of law, engaging in post-judgment collection efforts, and drafting appellate briefs.
