OVERVIEW

Andrew has extensive experience counseling London-market and U.S. insurers in their handling of complex first- and third-party claims across various lines, including cyber, professional liability, general liability, property, and transportation policies. Before joining the firm, Andrew was seconded to a leading Lloyd's syndicate and specialty insurer, where he served as U.S. counsel for claims and underwriting. Additionally, in his previous role as associate at another law firm, Andrew represented insurers nationwide in complex coverage disputes, with a particular focus on media, technology, and cyber liability.
