OVERVIEW

Andrew is a trusted advisor and litigator focused on creditors' rights and distressed real estate. He counsels secured lenders, special servicers, government-sponsored enterprises, and other creditors on enforcement strategies, out-of-court workouts, restructurings, and post-judgment enforcement proceedings. His broad experience includes judicial and nonjudicial commercial foreclosures, receiverships, loan sales, and UCC Article 9 sales.

Andrew's commercial litigation practice includes matters involving real estate, business, and construction disputes in state and federal courts, arbitrations, and mediations. He protects and enforces his clients' rights at every stage of the dispute process from pre-suit strategy through appeal.
