OVERVIEW

Angela has been a paralegal in the Richmond office since 2004. With her background in banking and affordable housing investment and finance, she is an integral part of the real estate team, helping clients and supporting the firm's transactional and finance teams. She is particularly skilled in researching properties, analyzing title reports and surveys, conducting due diligence, and preparing documentation for each stage of a commercial real estate transaction. Clients appreciate her diligence, responsiveness, and attention to detail throughout the closing process.
