Angie adeptly represents health care providers and managed care plans in a wide range of complex civil litigation matters, leveraging her knowledge of state and federal laws, including ERISA and MHPAEA.

OVERVIEW

Angie represents health care providers and managed care plans across a broad spectrum of civil litigation matters. She partners with clients to provide compliance guidance on a broad range of state and federal laws and regulations, including the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and the Mental Health Parity Addiction and Equity Act (MHPAEA).

Prior to joining the firm, Angie served as a law clerk at the Utah Supreme Court and as an intern at the Tenth Circuit. She draws upon this experience when representing her clients.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represented a media client in a dispute with state government concerning public records related to military contracts.
- Obtained summary judgment in favor of clients on ERISA Section 1132(a)(1)(B) cause of action, alleging improper denial of benefits at a residential treatment center in Utah as not medically necessary, and ERISA Section 1132(a)(3) cause of action, alleging clients violated the Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act (MHPAEA) through application of medical necessity criteria.
