

Anthony F. Troy

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Tony's practice focused on multistate regulatory work, consumer protection, civil litigation and administrative law matters. Previously serving as the Attorney General of Virginia from 1977-1978, Tony was well versed in attorney general matters and developed a practice surrounding client issues with State Attorney General offices. In addition to representing clients in single and multi-state enforcement action by State Attorneys General, Tony's practice also included commercial advertising, tobacco, antitrust, first amendment litigation, and other litigation.
