OVERVIEW

Anthony is an associate in the Consumer Financial Services practice. He focuses his practice on business and consumer financial disputes in state and federal courts, as well as complex commercial litigation and class action defense. Anthony focuses primarily on defending against claims arising under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) and Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), as well as other state and federal statutes.

Anthony graduated from University of Maryland Carey School of Law, where he served as manager editor on the Journal of Business & Technology. He was also on the Moot Court Board and served as chairperson of the Honor Board. During law school, Anthony represented clients in the Yale Law School Veterans Legal Services Clinic, as well as the University of Maryland's Justice for Victims of Crimes Clinic. He also interned in the chambers of U.S. District Judge Ellen Hollander in the District of Maryland and interned at Maryland Legal Aid.

Admitted in Virginia. Practice supervised by D.C. Bar members pursuant to Rule 49(c)(8).*
