Barry J. Brett

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Barry Brett handled a variety of complex litigation matters including landmark antitrust and trademark cases. His practice included counseling on antitrust and related issues involving mergers and acquisitions, product distribution, pricing, dealer termination and patent issues. He represented domestic and foreign clients in such diverse businesses as legitimate theatre, popular music, pharmaceutical and cosmetic products, computers and related equipment, paints and chemicals, labor unions, truck manufacturing, paper manufacturing, retailing, food manufacturing and distribution, and ball bearings.

Barry began his professional career as law clerk to United States District Judge Charles M. Metzner in the Southern District of New York.

©2026 Troutman Pepper Locke