OVERVIEW

Betty represents issuers and underwriters in connection with all aspects of public and private securities offerings, with a significant portion of her work concentrated in regulated industries, including the energy and utility industries, and real estate investment trusts. She has substantial experience with registered debt offerings, common stock offerings (including forward sales of common stock and the establishment of “at-the-market” equity programs), preferred stock offerings, and debt equity hybrid securities offerings (and related remarketings), Rule 144A/Reg S debt offerings, PIPE transactions and other private placements, and municipal debt offerings. Her experience with a variety of capital markets transactions enables her to effectively counsel clients in connection with sophisticated transactions in complex securities.

Betty also regularly advises clients in connection with mergers and acquisitions, general corporate and securities law matters, including disclosure and reporting obligations, and corporate governance issues.
