Brian guides clients on all aspects of their key transactions. His experience across a diverse range of deals and industries is an asset to clients who seek comprehensive advice and practical strategies.

OVERVIEW

Brian advises public and privately held clients in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, and debt financings.

He focuses his M&A practice on representing private equity firms and their portfolio companies in their strategic acquisitions and sales. Brian has also handled transactions involving distressed assets, including acquisitions and sales in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases.

Brian's work in the debt space includes representing borrowers in lending transactions, and lenders in senior secured credit agreements, subordinated debt facilities, and SBIC investments of growth equity and long-term debt. His diverse practice also includes advising entrepreneurs and emerging growth companies in their equity raises and general corporate matters. Brian has significant experience in the industrials and manufacturing sectors, as well as energy, oilfield services, health care, professional services, and technology.

Before attending law school, Brian served as a management consultant, advising Fortune 500 clients on data-driven marketing strategies.
