OVERVIEW

Bridgette is an attorney in the firm's Financial Services Litigation practice, where she represents financial institutions, businesses, and other clients in complex commercial litigation, financial services disputes, regulatory matters, and class actions. Her practice includes matters involving consumer protection statutes, compliance and licensing issues, financial services regulations, contract disputes, and government-related investigations and proceedings.

Before joining the firm, Bridgette served as a federal law clerk in both the U.S. District Court and the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Minnesota. She also gained valuable regulatory and government litigation experience through her roles with the New York City Law Department, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and FINRA.
