OVERVIEW

Carla has been a litigation paralegal for more than 23 years and has been a member of the Labor + Employment Practice Group for 18 of those years. Carla is knowledgeable in all phases of the litigation process, from inception of a case through investigation, discovery, mediation, and trial. She assists with document examination and management, drafting of pleadings, fact development, deposition preparation, and dispositive motion and trial preparation. In addition to providing the practice group with litigation support, Carla also assists the firm's clients with preparation of their affirmative action plans and responding to third-party subpoenas.
