OVERVIEW

Carlos focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts, representing a diverse range of clients, including health care companies, Fortune 500 corporations, mortgage lenders, and loan servicers.

With broad experience in consumer finance, health care, class actions, mass torts, products liability, and financial litigation, Carlos is adept at navigating all aspects of litigation, from pre-trial motions to appeals.

In the health care sector, Carlos represents companies and individuals facing lawsuits and enforcement actions, appearing regularly in state and federal courts, as well as before administrative agencies. His consumer finance practice involves defending mortgage lenders and loan servicers against class actions and individual claims under federal statutes, such as the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, and Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act. Additionally, Carlos handles wrongful foreclosure claims and state consumer protection statute cases.

As a native speaker in Spanish who grew up in Latin America, Carlos also takes a leading role in international disputes and arbitrations.
