Christy is a commercial litigator who focuses her practice on insurance, health care, class action, unfair competition, and antitrust disputes.

OVERVIEW

Christy is an associate in the firm's Orange County office, representing clients in commercial litigation. She represents clients on matters involving civil litigation in federal courts, state courts, and arbitrations. Her practice focuses on a diverse range of complex commercial litigation matters including insurance, class action defense, health care, unfair competition, and antitrust disputes.

Christy earned her J.D. from the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law. While in law school, Christy served as a chief productions editor of the UCLA International Law and Foreign Affairs Journal. During the spring of 2018, she served as an extern for the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Successfully represented a large group of Fortune 100 companies in their recovery of overcharges in an antitrust price-fixing action, resulting in a multimillion-dollar settlement.
- Defended various health plans in arbitrations brought by health care service providers alleging underpayment for services.
- Represented victims of terrorism in Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA) litigation arising from the 1983 and 1984 attacks on the U.S. Embassy and Annex in Beirut, Lebanon.
