OVERVIEW

Crystal assists Fortune 500 clients and other financial services institutions in complex and noncomplex litigation matters across the U.S. in actions involving various state and federal laws. She has significant experience in managing litigation portfolios, preparing discovery requests and responses, engaging and coordinating expert witnesses, and conducting extensive research on complex legal issues.

Crystal draws on the experience she gained from founding and managing her own law firm, as well as her roles at various law firms and legal tech companies, to provide clients with realistic expectations and creative strategies to handle the multitude of unforeseen issues that typically present themselves throughout the litigation process. She is committed to providing clients with detailed and reliable work product in an efficient and timely manner throughout all stages of a case.
