David's more than 30 years of aiding clients in high-profile insolvency and fraud cases affirms his strategic prowess in resolving complex cross-border asset recovery and restructuring challenges.

OVERVIEW

David brings substantial experience in insolvency and restructuring, focusing on insolvency and recovery actions, including cross-border asset tracing and asset and security recoveries. Dual-qualified in England and New South Wales, Australia, he advises a diverse range of clients, including insolvency practitioners, banks, company directors, asset-based lenders, trade financiers, distressed debt investors, and private equity concerns. David has extensive experience in fraud and forensic investigations by regulators and enforcement agencies.

David offers clients commercial acumen, negotiation skills, and the ability to navigate complex legal landscapes. His approach includes providing strategic, practical advice tailored to clients' specific needs, often resulting in significant asset recoveries and restructuring outcomes in their favor.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

High-Profile Matters
