

David S. Cohn

Retired Partner

Richmond

OVERVIEW

David Cohn's practice historically focused on structured finance and real estate development and syndication and his many accolades reflect this. Later in his career, he practiced private equity law in Shanghai, China, and merger and acquisition law for in New York. As a result, he became experienced in investing and doing business in China and developed an extensive network of Chinese contacts at leading private equity firms, venture capital firms, investment banks and merchant banks in China.