Donald W. Janney

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Before retiring, Don Janney's practice included drafting and negotiating coal supply agreements, transportation agreements, and ash management agreements for electric-generating plants and handling disputes related to such contracts. He also conducted internal corporate investigations and served as an arbitrator and as counsel in various commercial arbitration and mediation proceedings.

©2026 Troutman Pepper Locke