

Edward R. Mandell

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Before retiring, Ed Mandell had more than 30 years experience in providing advice and counsel to public and private corporations in a wide variety of commercial, business, and securities matters. His practice included mergers and acquisitions as well as the financing of companies through senior debt offerings, mezzanine financing, and public and private offerings. He represented buyers, sellers, and borrowers in more than 300 separate transactions. As a result of the extensive number of transactions he was responsible for, Ed developed broad business experience which enabled him to provide practical advice and counsel to boards of directors, management, and other business personnel.

Ed represented clients throughout the U.S. in a wide variety of industries including medical products, retailing, environmental and consulting services, metal stamping, wireless communications, food services, rubber products, health care, and others.
