OVERVIEW

Elizabeth is an associate in the firm's Business Litigation Practice Group. She represents clients in high-stakes appeals and critical motions at the trial level.

Before joining the firm, Elizabeth served as a law clerk for the Honorable Elizabeth L. Branch on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. She also served as an honors fellow and assistant attorney general in the Georgia Attorney General's Office. While there, she was part of the Solicitor General Unit and represented the State of Georgia in appellate, multistate, and constitutional litigation in state and federal courts.

While attending law school, Elizabeth was an articles editor for the Georgia Law Review and president of The Federalist Society.
