

Elliot Cohen

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Elliot Cohen had more than 30 years of experience handling a wide range of complex commercial litigation matters. His practice focused on the areas of securities fraud, securities arbitration, international litigation, and accountants' and attorneys' liability defense. He also represented clients in complex matters involving major contract, corporate, real estate, and intellectual property disputes. Elliot had extensive experience in all phases of litigation, including trials, appeals, arbitrations and other alternative dispute mechanisms, as well as the representation of clients before government and self-regulatory agencies.