OVERVIEW

Emily is an associate in the firm's Corporate practice. She focuses her practice on representing public companies in relation to securities offerings, private placements, and SEC compliance matters. Emily has experience representing companies across various industries, including energy and utility, life sciences, and real estate.

In addition to her capital markets practice, Emily advises public companies, private companies, and private equity funds on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, venture financing transactions, and other general corporate matters.

Emily also maintains an active pro bono practice, regularly advising nonprofit organizations on corporate governance and organizational matters.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS
