

Ezra H. Cohen

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Ezra Cohen was a former U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Georgia and, prior to his retirement, was a member of the bankruptcy practice. He represented debtors in possession, secured creditors, creditors' committees, trustees, purchasers and lessors of real and personal property. He served as trustee and examiner. He also had been appointed receiver in cases brought by the SEC as well as appointed special assistant attorney general by the state of Georgia to represent the interests of the state in bankruptcy cases.