OVERVIEW

Heidi has substantial experience representing clients in the insurance, reinsurance, and health care industries. Concentrating her practice on complex litigation, arbitration, and health care regulation, she handles matters involving breach of commercial or government contracts, business torts, trade secret and unfair competition claims, insurance insolvency litigation, state guaranty funds, and insurance fraud.

Heidi assists clients throughout the entire litigation or arbitration process, including case evaluation, discovery, pleadings, motions, hearings, trials, post-trial, and appeals. She also represents clients before state insurance departments, including provider appeals, guaranty fund surcharge disputes, and major health care insurance acquisitions.
