Jason is a commercial trial attorney with a focus on defending consumer-facing companies against class action and individual consumer protection claims. He has particular experience representing clients in mortgage- and auto finance-related litigation in state and federal courts.

OVERVIEW

Jason has a national practice focusing on financial services litigation, complex commercial litigation, and intellectual property litigation, with trial, appeals, and arbitration experience in Washington, D.C., Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Virginia, and West Virginia.

He has deep experience in representing national banks, mortgage investors, and loan servicers in class actions and individual litigation arising under federal and state laws. Jason has defended mass arbitrations for fintech and DeFi clients, including through evidentiary hearing and complete defense verdict. His practice includes litigation defense and compliance advice regarding FDCPA, TCPA, TILA, FCRA, RESPA, EFTA, RICO, and various state consumer UDAP statutes. He has counseled clients on responding to CFPB, state attorneys general and state banking department inquiries.

Jason has represented Fortune 500 companies in trials, hearings, and depositions involving disputes related to contracts, business torts, patents, trademarks, and trade secrets.
