Jason's ability to offer strategic yet practical advice, combined with his Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation, makes him a trusted business advisor to lenders and borrowers navigating complex debt finance transactions.

OVERVIEW

Jason advises private credit funds, private equity sponsors, banks, and corporate borrowers in a variety of lending and finance transactions, including in connection with leveraged buyouts, working capital credit facilities, asset-based loans, and restructuring transactions. He regularly negotiates transactions across the capital structure, including first-lien, second-lien, subordinated, mezzanine, and unitranche financings.

As a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), Jason leverages his deep understanding of accounting and financial analysis to help clients navigate the complexities of structuring finance transactions.

Jason provides clear advice that helps clients achieve their financial goals while mitigating risks. He has a thorough understanding of the financial landscape and stays at the forefront of the latest market terms.
