Jeff is an accomplished litigator who leverages his courtroom experience to help clients resolve disputes and mitigate risk. With a deep understanding of his clients' businesses and industry-specific nuances, clients trust Jeff to handle their most important challenges.

OVERVIEW

Jeff is a first chair litigator who litigates complex commercial disputes and provides comprehensive risk mitigation counseling to clients across a range of sectors. He is experienced with matters involving mergers and acquisitions, partnerships, fiduciary duties, commercial real estate transactions, franchise and distribution systems, restrictive covenants, and other sophisticated contractual issues.

Jeff's practice also extends into the realm of insurance law, where he provides counsel and litigates statutory and common law bad faith claims. His experience encompasses both first-party and third-party insurance disputes, where he has successfully guided clients through the complexities of insurance litigation, ensuring their rights are protected and claims are effectively addressed.

While Jeff regularly appears before state and federal courts throughout the U.S. and in arbitrations, he also keenly focuses on early dispute resolution. He cuts to the core of matter, evaluating key issues and finding the most efficient pathway to achieving his clients' goals. His clients appreciate this approach, which aims to safeguard their interests while avoiding, if possible, litigation expenses and exposure.
