Jeffrey brings extensive experience representing clients across a diverse array of industries in complex commercial litigation and arbitration.

OVERVIEW

Jeffrey's practice encompasses anti-corruption and FCPA litigation, employment class actions, trade secret misappropriation cases, and financial services litigation. He also has a robust background in insurance litigation. Jeffrey guides clients through all stages of litigation, from pre-litigation settlement negotiations and pre-trial motions to post-trial motions and appeals, in federal and state courts, as well as JAMS/AAA arbitrations.

Jeffrey's pro bono work focuses on corporate formation and securing tax-exempt status for educational and athletic charitable organizations.
