OVERVIEW

Jennifer is a litigator on the Privacy + Cyber team. She represents clients in complex cybersecurity and privacy class actions — including cases that involve emerging legal questions related to jurisdiction and standing — and manages all phases of litigation from case assessment through discovery, dispositive motions, settlement, and appeals.

Jennifer also maintains an active pro bono practice and has represented clients in everything from landlord-tenant disputes to seeking new trials for an inmate on death row. She previously served as a law clerk in Ohio's First District Court of Appeals.
