OVERVIEW

Jerilynne manages complex litigation, antitrust, and regulatory compliance matters for clients across all major industry sectors. She is particularly experienced in high-stakes matters, including pre-merger compliance and Hart-Scott-Rodino Act filings, as well as responding to civil investigative demands, subpoenas, and requests from government agencies. Jerilynne has spent her entire career at large law firms.

Jerilynne's approach prioritizes collaboration across diverse teams, training staff, and developing firm-wide protocols that help to drive operational excellence. Her experience includes international litigations and other matters, addressing GDPR compliance, and managing large-scale document reviews, and privilege determinations.

Jerilynne's pro bono practice includes serving as a guardian ad litem in pro bono custody case.
