OVERVIEW

Jessie is an associate in the firm's Consumer Financial Services practice. She represents health care providers and managed care plans in a broad range of civil litigation and regulatory counseling matters, with a focus on managed care disputes and the compliance obligations that arise under state and federal consumer protection laws. Jessie also advises banks and other financial institutions on the litigation risks that accompany operating in a regulated consumer financial services environment.

Before joining the firm, Jessie concentrated on government investigations and white collar litigation, including pretrial motions and briefs, and served as a law clerk in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. She also has pro bono experience representing veterans on benefits and discharge matters.
