OVERVIEW

Jodi handles client intake and conflict clearance for new and existing firm clients. She also handles professional responsibility matters and ethics related inquiries, serving as a resource to the firm's attorneys.

Prior to Troutman Pepper Locke, Jodi worked as a litigation associate at a large Philadelphia law firm, and later returned as a member of that firm's office of general counsel in dissolution. In that role, she assisted the wind-down committee and general counsel in winding-down the firm's business affairs.
