

John P. Ackerly III

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Jack Ackerly had significant trial experience including contract litigation, personal injury suits, matters involving decedents' estates, and interpretation of local taxing statutes. He also practiced general business law and served his clients as lead counsel in sales and acquisitions matters. In addition, Jack maintained a significant trust and estate planning and administration practice and served as executor to several significant estates.