Jon brings to clients in the energy industry more than 20 years of experience providing strategic transactional counsel. He leverages deep insight in M&A and capital markets to guide clients through complex transactions and help them achieve their business objectives.

OVERVIEW

Jon focuses his practice on corporate and securities law, including mergers and acquisitions and capital-raising transactions. He represents issuers and investment banks in initial public offerings, public and private equity offerings, and public and private debt offerings. Jon also advises companies, management teams, and private equity funds on private equity investments and mergers and acquisitions. In addition, he advises boards of directors, special committees, and financial advisors in mergers and acquisitions and take private transactions. Jon's clients include public and private companies, master limited partnerships (MLPs), and entities in the energy industry, including oil and gas exploration, midstream, oilfield services, and power generation companies.

Jon also has extensive experience with special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs), including IPOs, anchor investments, and de-SPAC transactions. He regularly counsels public companies regarding compliance with federal securities laws, Exchange Act reporting, corporate governance, Rule 144, SEC matters, NYSE and NASDAQ compliance, 10b5-1 trading plans, and Regulation FD.
