

Jonathan A. Constine

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Jon represented insurers in securities, directors and officers (D&O), and employment practices complex coverage litigation. In addition to a successful track record representing insurance clients at the trial level and in arbitrations, Jon had more than two decades of experience handling federal appellate and state supreme court cases involving coverage issues of national significance. Jon successfully handled precedent-setting cases involving “late notice” defenses, the “insured v. insured” exclusion, prior acts and warranty exclusions, the definition of “loss,” and coverage for disgorgement claims.
