OVERVIEW

Jonathan is an associate in the firm's Private Equity practice, representing middle- and lower-middle-market funds and their portfolio companies, family offices, and principal owners and investors across the full M&A lifecycle. His practice has a strong cross-border dimension, advising EU and UK buyers on U.S. acquisitions and guiding domestic clients through outbound and cross-border sales. Jonathan's transaction experience spans the technology, manufacturing, health care, fashion, and gaming and entertainment industries.

Jonathan also serves as ongoing counsel to companies and their boards on corporate governance, entity formation, regulatory compliance, and commercial matters – offering continuity across the deal lifecycle and beyond.
